Court members and Emma are reminded that coronation practice will start at 9am tomorrow! Practice should be over by 10 at the latest. Ladies, bring your shoes so you can practice walking in them!

Prom clean-up will start at noon on Sunday! All hands are welcome and appreciated!

Guidance News:

New Scholarship Available -

JBS United, Inc. Scholarship - For the senior who will be pursuing an Ag or Ag-related degree at any school after graduation. Due date is April 28th.

Cottey College is hosting a week-long camp for current sophomore & juniors girls June 18-23. Students will learn leadership skills, and gain knowledge to be a Girl Boss, a Game Changer and one who is a Barrier Breaker. College professors will be teaching interactive courses, guiding adventures and sharing the skills needed to build an empire. Please stop by the guidance office if you are interested in this endeavor. Information packets are available in the G.O. and there will be a representative one day to speak to those that are interested. That date will be advertised in the near future. The cost of the camp is $385 per student but there is a chance that financial assistance will be available to those interested.

If any student has a Music Appreciation book from their JWCC class that they would like to see, please see the guidance office. Thanks!

Mounted Angels is a Therapeutic Horsemanship Riding group that is looking for students that would like to join them this summer. You don't have to know how to ride a horse, you can be a beginner and have lots of fun. Students involved must have a qualified disability that is documented by their physician. Forms are in the guidance office if you are interested in joining them this summer. Riding begins June 1st and continues every Thursday throughout June and July.

Mounted Angels is also looking for Volunteers to join them this summer. Interested volunteers must be 14 years old or older to assist. You don't have to be a great horseman, you will be taught what you need to know beginning June 1st at the training session that begins at 6:00 p.m. Volunteer applications are in the guidance office for those who are interested.

Have a wonderful Saukee Weekend!
